Ms. Diane Elm Accounts Management I Internal Revenue Service Ogden, Utah 84301-0038

Dear Ms. Elm:

Attached please find a copy of your letter dated 17 October 2006, and our letters dated 22 September 2006 and 31 May 2006.

Our letter dated 22 September 2006 was prepared by our former Vice Chairman, Dr. David Riley, requesting that the penalties for 2003 be abated for the same reasons described in his letter dated 31 May 2006. The reasons for filing our Form 990 late for 2003 and 2004 were the same. Primarily they were delayed because of the acts of a dishonest employee.

All of our organizational problems have been solved, we have engaged a new CPA and we will file all IRS Forms on time in the future.

We sincerely hope that you can abate these late filing penalties for reasonable cause. The imposition of these penalties would place an enormous financial burden on our organization. Our organization has a worthwhile mission that discusses the views of Chemists around the world. Our members basically pay dues and their contributions to our society are meaningful.

If additional information is needed to resolve this matter, please don't hesitate to call me at 718.270.6397 or our CPA: Leopold Galliera at 215.291.0400.

Sincerely,

Edmond S. Malka, PhD, ABD, MPH, CSci, CChem, MRSC, FAIC

Form: 990

Dear Taxpayer:

Thank you for your inquiry dated Sep. 19, 2006.

The law provides a penalty of $20 a day (up to a maximum of $10,000 or 5 percent of your gross receipts for the year, whichever is less) for each day your Form 990 is late. If your organization has gross receipts exceeding $1,000,000, the law provides a penalty of $100 a day up to a maximum of $50,000.

Your return was due on Nov. 15, 2004. We received it on Feb. 06, 2006.

If you think you have an acceptable reason for us to remove or reduce this penalty, you should do the following:

- explain why in a signed statement;
- send any supporting documents; and
- request that we remove the penalty from your account.

Either the person who is responsible for your tax or who is authorized to pay your tax must sign the statement. That person generally is an officer of the exempt organization or a person you authorized by a power of attorney.

In addition, we also can remove a penalty or a portion of it if you received a penalty because you followed our advice. Before we can do so, however, the following sequence must occur:

- You wrote to us, asking for advice about a specific issue.
- 2. You gave us complete and correct information about the issue.
- 3. You received from us specific written advice.
- You followed our written advice in the manner that we outlined.

5. You received a penalty.

The current balance due for the tax period ended Dec. 31, 2003 is $7,147.75, which includes applicable penalty and interest figured to Nov. 08, 2006. Penalty and interest charges will continue to increase until you pay the full balance due. Please include on your check, your Taxpayer Identification Number, form, and tax period, indicating where we should apply the payment.

If you have any questions, please call us toll free at 1-800-829-0115.

If you prefer, you may write to us at the address shown at the top of the first page of this letter.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Diane Elm
